INTRODUCTION

The Chancellor George Osborne delivered his final Autumn Statement of this Parliament amid ongoing economic uncertainty. The key indicators paint an unclear picture.

The UK economy is now expected to grow faster in 2014 than any other developed economy including the Eurozone. But the pace of GDP growth slowed between the second and the third quarters of this year, from 0.9% to 0.7%.

Inflation crept up slightly to 1.3% in October 2014 but this was from a 5-year low of 1.2% in September. Employment continues to rise and unemployment continues to fall but pay growth is only just keeping pace with inflation.

There were 76,000 more new businesses launched in 2013 than in 2012, and the number of businesses that failed last year fell by 6% on the year before. But annual growth in business investment is almost 3.5% lower than expected for 2014.

Despite the uncertain economic backdrop, the official update from the Office for Budget Responsibility (OBR) was positive. GDP growth in 2014 is expected to be 0.3% higher than the prediction made at the 2014 Budget in March. The OBR expects 500,000 new jobs to have been created by the end of the year, almost double the amount forecast in March. And the deficit has fallen to 5% of GDP, half the figure in 2010.

The Chancellor urged caution in view of “warning lights” flashing over the global economy but said the figures showed the long term economic plan is working and the UK is “on course to prosperity.”

The following report summarises the announcements made by Chancellor George Osborne during the 2014 Autumn Statement on Wednesday 3 December 2014.

CORPORATION TAX – DEVOLUTION TO NORTHERN IRELAND

The government recognises the arguments for devolving the powers for setting the rate of corporation tax to Northern Ireland given its land border with the very low corporation tax environment of the Republic of Ireland.

Before this power can be transferred, the Northern Ireland Executive must agree budgets for 2015/16 and ensure its finances are on a sustainable footing for the future.

The Northern Ireland Executive is currently taking part in talks aimed at resolving a number of issues.

HIGH-END TELEVISION TAX RELIEF

The restriction will apply to losses accruing up to 1 April 2015 and will include an exemption for losses incurred in the first 5 years of a bank's authorisation.

OIL AND GAS

SUPPLEMENTARY CHARGE AND RING FENCE EXPENDITURE

The rate of the supplementary charge will reduce from 32% to 30% from 1 January 2015. The government will aim to reduce the rate further in a sustainable way.

There was also an extension to the ring fence expenditure supplement to 10 years for offshore oil and gas activities.

HIGH PRESSURE, HIGH TEMPERATURE CLUSTER AREA ALLOWANCE

Legislation is being introduced to create a new cluster area allowance to support the development of high pressure, high temperature projects and encourage exploration and appraisal activity in the surrounding area.

The allowance will exempt a portion of the company's profit from the supplementary charge equal to 62.5% of the qualifying capital expenditure a company incurs in relation to a cluster area on or after 3 December 2014.

ENTERPRISE ZONES

The government will seek to extend the Enterprise Zone in Nottingham to a site in Derby and will consider the case for further extensions to existing Enterprise Zones at the Budget.

PERSONAL TAX

INCOME TAX ALLOWANCES AND TAX RATES

The personal allowance will increase to £10,600 from 6 April 2015, an increase of £100 from that previously announced.

The basic rate limit changes to £31,785 (currently £31,865) with the higher rate threshold above which income tax is payable at 40% increasing to £42,385.

STARTING RATE LIMIT

The starting rate limit on savings income will increase to £5,000 (currently £2,880) for the 2015/16 tax year.

REMITTANCE BASIS CHARGE FOR RESIDENT NON DOMICILES

The annual charge that is currently payable by non domiciled individuals resident in the UK who wish to retain access to the remittance basis will increase:

- The charge paid by people who have been UK resident for 7 out of the last 9 years will remain at its current level of £30,000
- The charge paid by those who have been UK resident for 12 out of the last 14 years will increase by £10,000 from £50,000 to £60,000
- A new charge of £90,000 will be introduced for those who have been UK resident for 17 of the last 20 years. The government will consult on making the election apply for a minimum of 3 years.

The carer's allowance earnings limit will increase from £102 to £110 per week from April 2015.

This means that a family will be able to employ a care worker on a salary of up to £22,500 and pay no employer NICs.

Carers will be exempted from the impact of removing the £8,500 threshold below which employees do not pay income tax on benefits in kind.

ENLARGING THE SOCIAL INVESTMENT TAX RELIEF SCHEME

Subject to state aid approval, the government will increase the investment limit to £5 million per year per organisation, up to a maximum of £15 million per organisation.

Small scale community farms and horticultural activities will be eligible for the relief from 6 April 2015.

CAR BENEFITS

The company car fuel benefit multiplier increases from £21,700 to £22,100.

VAN BENEFITS

The standard van fuel benefit increases to £594 (currently £581) while the van benefit charge is increasing to £3,150 (currently £3,090).

SAVINGS

ISAs

The savings limit for an ISA will increase from £15,000 to £15,240 from 6 April 2015.

At the same time, the Junior ISA and Child Trust Fund subscription limits both increase from £4,000 to £4,080.

TRANSFERS TO SPOUSES AND CIVIL PARTNERS ON DEATH

Legislation will be introduced from 3 December 2014 to allow an additional ISA allowance for spouses and civil partners when an ISA saver dies, equal to the value of that saver's ISAs.

PENSIONS

Savers will be able to access their defined contribution pension as they wish at retirement from April 2015. This will be subject to their marginal rate of income tax, instead of the current 55% charge for full withdrawal.

Further to the recent announcement regarding people being able to pass on their pension pot to the next generation, the government confirmed that if the individual dies before age 75, the beneficiary will pay no tax on the funds.

If death occurs after the age of 75, the beneficiary will pay their marginal rate of income tax, or 45% if the funds are taken as a lump sum payment. The lump sum payments will also be taxed at the recipient's marginal rate from April 2016.

From April 2015, beneficiaries of individuals who die under the age of 75 with a joint life or guaranteed annuity will be able to receive any future payments from such policies tax-free.

It will also be possible to allow joint life annuities to be passed on to any beneficiary.

PENSIONS FLEXIBILITY

A reduced annual allowance of £10,000 will be introduced for money purchase contributions for individuals who have flexibly accessed a pension from 6 April 2015.

PENSION CREDIT

The savings credit threshold will rise by 5.1%. As a consequence, the new flat rate state pension will be at least £151.25 a week.

The actual final amount of this new flat rate pension is to be announced in autumn 2015.

CAPITAL TAXES

INHERITANCE TAX (IHT)

EXEMPTION FOR MEDALS AND AWARDS

The existing IHT exemption for medals and other decorations that are awarded for valour or gallantry is to be extended. From 3 December 2014, this applies to all decorations and medals awarded to the armed services or emergency services personnel, and to awards made by the Crown for achievements and service in public life.

EXEMPTION FOR EMERGENCY SERVICES PERSONNEL AND HUMANITARIAN AID WORKERS

The IHT exemption for members of the armed forces whose death is caused or hastened by injury while on active service will be extended to members of the emergency services or humanitarian aid workers responding to emergency circumstances. This extension is to have effect for deaths on or after 19 March 2014.

ANTI-AVOIDANCE

RESTRICTING TAX ADVANTAGE ON INCORPORATION

The corporation tax relief a company may obtain following the acquisition of a business through the amortisation of 'goodwill' from a related individual or partnership will be restricted. This will affect acquisitions on or after 3 December 2014.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX

RESTRICTING TAX ADVANTAGE OF ENTREPRENEURS' RELIEF ON INCORPORATION

Individuals will be prevented from claiming Entrepreneurs' Relief on disposals of the 'goodwill' when they transfer the business to a related close company, with effect from 3 December 2014.

GAINS DEFERRED INTO QUALIFYING EIS OR SITR INVESTMENTS

The government will allow gains which are eligible for Entrepreneurs' Relief, but which are deferred into investments qualifying for the Enterprise Investment Scheme (EIS) or Social Investment Tax Relief (SITR), to remain eligible for Entrepreneurs' Relief when the gain is realised.

These new rules will benefit qualifying gains on disposals that would be eligible for Entrepreneurs' Relief but are deferred into the EIS or the SITR on or after 3 December 2014.

REPEAL OF LATE PAID INTEREST RULES

The government will repeal rules concerning loans made to UK companies by a connected company in a non-qualifying territory.

INCOME TAX – MISCELLANEOUS LOSS RELIEF

Legislation will be introduced to deny loss relief where a miscellaneous loss, or miscellaneous income, arises from relevant tax avoidance arrangements with effect from 3 December 2014.

Further legislation will be introduced with effect from the 2015/16 tax year to limit relief to miscellaneous income of the same type as the loss.

PROFIT SHIFTING AND BASE EROSION

A new diverted profits tax at 25% will be introduced from 1 April 2015 to counter the use of aggressive tax planning by multinationals to divert profits from the UK.

Other anti-avoidance measures have also been introduced which will require multinationals to provide high level information to HMRC on their global allocations of profits and taxes paid.

There will also be consultation on new rules for addressing hybrid mismatch arrangements to prevent multinational enterprises avoiding tax through cross border business structures.

CIVIL DETERRENTS FOR OFFSHORE TAX EVASION

Legislation will be introduced to enhance civil penalties for offshore tax evasion.

A wide range of changes were announced, including amending the existing offshore penalties to include inheritance tax and a new aggravated penalty of up to a further 50% for moving hidden funds to circumvent international tax transparency.

PROMOTERS OF TAX AVOIDANCE SCHEMES

Legislation covering high risk promoters of tax avoidance schemes will be updated and clarified to ensure that the 2014 legislation functions as intended.

Changes will include a broader range of connected persons under the common control of a promoter in the regime and clarify the time limits within which HMRC can issue conduct notices to promoters who fail to disclose the scheme.

SPECIAL PURPOSES SHARE SCHEMES

The government is taking action to block the tax advantage offered to higher rate and additional rate taxpayers by special purpose share schemes which allow shareholders to choose how to receive their 'dividend' so that it is taxed at preferential rates.

This typically involves the issue of a share that is purchased back by the company shortly after, with no commercial purposes other than to secure a tax advantage for the shareholder.

This advantage has been removed by treating the amount received the same way as dividend income, where the individual shareholder is offered the choice.
